

Musing over the message on:

“WIN THE PEACE”

 How would you define the difference between “winning the war” and “winning the peace?”

 What type of situations or circumstances make it most difficult for you to pursue peace?

 How is it possible, even when standing up for what is “right,” to develop an unholy desire for victory rather than peace?

 Have you encountered Christians who exhibited actions and attitudes which demonstrated they had no desire for peace? What observations can you make from their actions?

 Have there been times when you were also entrapped in the bitterness which lacked a desire for peace? Are you still? What can/should you do about it?

